New Website

Check out the newly renovated Canvas website at <http://www.canvasarts.org>. On the website you'll find up-to-date class listings (including pottery!) and upcoming events. Information about our gallery exhibits is on the website as well as articles about various REACH Artists. If you need to contact staff or share information about our program, the website is the place to visit.

July Gallery Exhibit

Tim Chandonnet, northwest artist from Bellingham, WA, is exhibiting his show "Taku Seasons: A photographic documentation" for the month of July at The Canvas Art Gallery. His show will run through Tuesday July 29th. You can check out Tim's website about the show at <http://www.takuseasons.com/>. Come check out his captivating photography Mondays 12-4pm and Tuesday through Friday

Family Wheel Day

There is no limit to what you can create with spokes, gears and tread! Bring your family to the Canvas on Sunday, Aug 17 from 12noon-4pm and paint with wheels, twist with wire, create unique art inspired by the wheel. We'll even open up the pottery studio for a quick spin on the potter's wheel. On your way to or from the Canvas, stop by the City Museum to check out their current 'wheel' exhibit, 91 Miles to Ride: Juneau's Biker Culture. Cost is pay as you can.
